

USC Sol Price School of Public Policy International Exchange Program 2019-2020

ABOUT THE PRICE SCHOOL

The mission of the USC Sol Price School of Public Policy is to improve the quality of life for people and their communities, here and abroad. The Price School ranks 3rd among 285 schools of public affairs nationwide, according to U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Graduate Schools" released in 2019. Located three miles from downtown Los Angeles, 13 miles from the beach, and within 60 miles of both deserts and snow-capped mountains, the Price School offers students the opportunity to enjoy the cultural richness of a major city coupled with L.A.'s outdoor lifestyle and unbeatable weather. L.A.'s rich cultural diversity and unique urban setting provides an ideal "living laboratory" for learning.

COURSE INFORMATION

Exchange students are required to take three-quarters (3/4) of their units within the Price School. Undergraduate students require 12-16 units a semester, and graduate students require 8-12 units a semester.

Exchange students have the same freedom in course selection as regular students. Though courses may be taken outside of the Price School in other departments, these require additional approval and are approved pending available space, fulfillment of any prerequisites, among other criteria.

Exchange students will be provided further information regarding course registration upon admission to the program.

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

The schedule of classes provides a list of courses offered during a specific semester, a brief course description, the time and day a course meets, and the name of the instructor. To view Price School courses, click on Price School of Public Policy, and courses are listed under Policy, Planning and Development (PPD) and Policy, Planning and Development - Expanded (PPDE).

J-1 VISA & SEVIS FEE

Upon admission into the program, the Exchange Program Coordinator will send all J-1 visa-related documents to the student. A student's J-1 visa will be valid for the length of the program of study. Students are able to enter the U.S. 30 days prior to the start date of the visa and stay in the U.S. up to 30 days after the end date of the visa.

More information:

ois.usc.edu/

The SEVIS system is a computerized system that tracks all student visa holders. All international students must pay a SEVIS fee to the U.S. government prior to their visa interview. Information on where to pay the fee will be included with your admission packet.

HEALTH SERVICES

Health insurance is mandatory for all students, though students may request a waiver if they have a qualifying insurance policy. For International students, most international plans are not accepted. Your insurance plan must meet the minimum requirements to support your visa as well as USC's minimum requirements. The cost for USC student health insurance for Fall 2019 is $753.00 and Spring/Summer 2020 is $1,370.00. In addition to the above described health insurance charges, USC has a mandatory student health center fee that may not be waived, enabling students to access care at the health center on their campus. The student health center fee is $367 for Fall semester 2019 and $366 for Spring semester 2020.

HOUSING

USC offers on-campus housing options on a first-come, first-served basis. While much of the on-campus housing is reserved for incoming freshman, there are facilities available for upperclassmen and graduate students depending on space availability. Accommodations include apartments, residence halls and suites in a variety of locations and sizes. USC has also partnered with Off-Campus Housing (OCH) to help students find safe and convenient housing near the USC campus. OCH provides tools, resources, information, and events designed to make searching for a home easier.
